AN OPPORTUNITY!

At the request of a number of our patrons, we have concluded to offer the services of our artist, Mr. W. Y. Itow, as a practical instructor in Oil Painting and Water Coloring, free of charge.
Mr. Itow has been in our employ for the past two years and we feel confident that, by practical demonstration, he can teach his pupil just what he wants to know in the matter of handling colors, etc., without the tiresome course usually adopted by instructors.
For further particulars enquire at
KING BROS.,
Hotel street.

FOREIGN NEWS AND GOSSIP.

Henry Irving, the actor, is very ill.

The militia in England is to be mobilized.

The Sultan of Turkey is annoyed at the diplomatic victory of England in Egypt.

The Jamaica Legislature has increased the grant for the Chicago Exhibition from $10,000 to $25,000.

The government methods of Russifying colonies is likely to lead to the wholesale emigration of Germans.

The Archbishop of Canterbury practically has declared himself in favor of opening museums on Sundays.

The yellow fever has extended into the interior towns of Brazil and many small places have been abandoned.

King Humbert has intimated his readiness to accept a reduction of 1,000,000 lire (about $200,000) in the civil list.

Count de Leopoldina (Henry Lowm) a prominent speculator at Rio de Janeiro, has been declared a bankrupt.

British copper magnates have declined to accept a proposal by American mine owners for a 15 per cent reduction in outputs.

It is proposed to unite all of the Islands of Japan by a system of submarine telegraph cables, at an estimated cost of $2,000,000.

The news from the Bight of Benin settlements is that the King of Dahomey is approaching Porto Novo and an attack is imminent.

Mrs. Gladstone has an orphanage at Hawarden with thirty-five or forty boys, five or six years old, in it, and she gives the lady her personal attention.

Applications for space in the Exposition buildings now aggregate more than 4,000,000 square feet, a little over one-third being from foreign applicants.

The Marquis of Sligo, who owns 122,902 acres in county Mayo, is the largest landowner in Ireland. His rent roll is about $16,000 from this, not very much from each acre.

Preparations for the proper observance of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus are going forward in Madrid under the auspices of the Queen Regent.

Negotiations are taking place between Switzerland and Italy for the modification of the frontier of the Canton of Ticino, with the view of preventing the difficulties arising from smugglers.

News from Venezuela shows successes of the rebels under Crespo, who is moving slowly on Caracas. Palacio is aware of his perils and will, if closely pushed, take flight from the Republic.

The recently published story about fighting in Uganda, East Africa, between the Protestant natives and Catholic converts, led by King Mwanga, is confirmed. The casualties are said to be heavy.

The Pope, who is eighty-two, wears spectacles only when reading; for ordinary uses his eyesight remains good. He could see better at seventy than he could at twenty, for when young he was very near-sighted.

The estimates of revenues of the British government for the current year is $450,000,000. These revenues come chiefly from tariff duties, which prove England's claim to the title of Free-trade country a misnomer.

Among the curiosities of the North Carolina department of the World's Fair will be shown some of the alleged fragments of the chain which held Columbus in his prison, the property of Robert S. Moore of New Bern.

Rains have flooded the cities of Sao Paulo and Santos, Brazil, and caused much damage. In Santos thirty or forty persons are said to have perished and the damage to property is estimated to be over $1,500,000.

According to the Paris Gaulois the number of people in France who died of hunger was 97,000; the number who went mad in consequence of misery and privations of various kinds was 71,000 and the number of crimes committed was 247,000.

According to statistics just published, the production of gold in Russia in 1890 amounted to 2406 pounds, 37 pounds, (the good equals 40 Russian or 36 English pounds), compared with 2271 pounds, 31 pounds, in 1889. The increase is said to be due to the development of Siberian gold fields.

The Russian Government is taking steps to relieve the distress occasioned by the famine. About 100,000 men and 45,000 horses are to be employed at once in clearing a tract of 30,000 acres of forest land, while 140,000 men and 26,000 horses are to be employed in building public highways.

The Lower House of the New York Legislature has passed a Woman's Suffrage bill, which will be defeated in the Senate. Last year the Senate passed it and the Assembly defeated it. This game of passing the measure in one branch and then defeating it in the other has been played again and again.

The best spring medicine is a dose or two of St. Patrick's Pills. They not only physic but cleanse the whole system and purify the blood. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., Agents.
